

For BASF Members Only: Check out the next Tech Tuesday seminar presented by The Bar Association of San Francisco

CYBERSECURITY TIPS AT WARP SPEED FOR LAWYERS: MAKE SURE YOU'RE ETHICALLY COMPLIANT

Tuesday, September 26 • 12:00 - 12:45 p.m.
Register online at www.sfbbar.org/calendar

SPEAKERS

Sharon D. Nelson, Esq.
President, Sensei Enterprises, Inc.

John W. Simek
Vice President, Sensei Enterprises, Inc

Webcast only

Event Code: X170030

YOU WILL LEARN ABOUT:

- Cybersecurity standards for small businesses
- How to prevent data breaches using a combination of technology, policies and training
- Secure computing when you're on the road
- Two factor authentication
- Intrusion detection systems
- Encryption
- The new rules for strong passwords and password management
- What you must do after a data breach and the components of an Incident Response Plan
- Defending against – and recovering from – ransomware

BASF Members can view past presentations in the Solo and Small Firm Resource Center at www.sfbbar.org/solo-small-firm. [member log-in required]

Past Tech Tuesday programs available for viewing include:

- Hacking and Social Hacking: How to avoid it
- Technology Tips and Document Review, Production & Use at Trial
- Free Online Legal Resources
- Evaluating Cloud Computing Technologies
- Growing Your Practice with Social Media
- Building & Maintaining your online presence across multiple platforms
- eLAWYERING for competitive advantage: Keeping up with the evolving practice of law
- Pads for Attorneys: Overcoming the challenges and taking advantage of the strengths
- High Tech Trial Presentations using PowerPoint
- Google+ for Attorneys
- Maximizing Your Law Firm Website
- iOS Apps for Lawyers
- Social Media as Electronic Evidence
- Websites 101
- Build Your Own Virtual Law Firm
- Best Practice for Email Management for Lawyers
- 5 Ways to Build Trust w/ Online Videos

Don't know your member log-in? Contact the Membership Department at 415-982-1600.

Tech Tuesdays is a free 45-minute session and available to BASF members only as a benefit of membership.